ZYQ9!

ABCDEFGH Build me a conspiracy
Out of what they let you see reversing the psychology
And cultivate in you and me a feeling of necessity
To turn our animosity at holographic enemies

Counter culture accounted for rebel factions factored in (2x)

Following the acid trails, believing all the fairy tales of all the daggers and the cloaks, they hang from crucifixion nails to control you with fear, they tell you what you need to hear
Z Y Q 9, detonate the mental mind

Takes a common enemy, to bring us all to unity
Take a look at the time, is it 1984 already?
It all adds up, we're numbered at...
It all adds up, we're numbered at
It all adds up, we're numbered at birth

(repeat first 4 paragraphs)

I want to see, but you have blinded me
So you can keep on killing everybody (2x)
