I live in this brand new house
With a white fence on the front
Got a great wife and 2 kids
And I work in what I love

I have to travel around the country
I can't help it, my job demands it
Hate to leave my wife and kids
Cause I get to miss them loads

But every time I'm on my way
I end up in some woman's bed
I hear all my friends in my head
Who keeps telling me again and again.

200 miles away is not cheating
200 miles away (X4)

Some would say your wife is perfect
There's no need for you to cheat her
I shouldn't do the things I'm doing
And still can't stop, I know I couldn't

But every time I'm on my way
I end up in some woman's bed
I hear all my friends in my head
Who keeps telling me again and again.

200 miles away is not cheating
200 miles away(X2)

And when I feel these voices gone
And I'm staying at my home
I hear the phone rings, it's my boss
Goodbye my darling, have to go

200 miles away is not cheating
200 miles away
