Did you ever know love
Cos I wanna be with you
Did you ever know love
Cos I want to be with you

Did you ever see a light inside your mind
Did you ever stop to look, well it makes you blind
You should feel the love
From my skin to my bones
It's a feeling that is making me high

There's something and it makes me smile
I think I like you
There's something burning in my mind ,yeah
I think I like you

Did you ever think twice
Cos I wanna be with you
No doubt from my side
Cos I wanna be with you

Did you ever make love
Was I on your mind
Did you ever get enough, were you satisfied
You should feel the love
From my skin to my bones
It's a feeling that's making me high

There's something and it makes me smile
I think I like you
There's something burning in my mind yeah
I think I like you

I want you
To call me
Don't you forget
I'll wait
And wonder
So don't waste my time

There's something and it makes me smile

I think I like you
There's something burning in my mind yeah
I think I like you

There's something and it makes me smile
I think I like you
There's something burning in my mind yeah
I think I like you
