

Neal Peterson

"Fields Of Snow"

Visit "Fields Of Snow" on MotoLyrics.com

A long afternoon, singing for you
The winter will pass soon
Flame from a spark, then lightness from dark
I pause as she tells me

I know that I can't go on without you
Maybe someday all your tired dreams can come true Keep pushing on, the summer will come, I thought you should know
That I'll be right here, waiting my dear, in fields of snow

Days turn to night and the moon watches over
The temperature drops as your veins turn a pale blue

I know that I can't go on without you
Maybe someday all our tired dreams can come true
We'll keep pushing on, yes, the summer it will come, I thought you should know That I'll be right here, still waiting my dear, in fields of
snow

I'll blanket my toes, the sun will not know
The trail will guide you home

The sky opens up, and everything is clearer
The sun lost the stars, the morning is here
Forget the past, the future is what's real Eternal summer, give us something we can feel

Visit Neal Peterson page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.