Miller's the Champagne of beers, King Cobra's fucking cheap
And Schaefer's fine but of them all Budweiser's the King of Beers I drink it every night
'Cause I'm in love with alcohol

99 bottles of beer on the wall
But's the party's only starting so I say We're going to the store and we're gonna get some more We'll break down the bedroom door then we'll pass out on the floor

It's funny how I always wake up thinking to my self
This really isn't any fun I've got a killer of a headache and my mouth is always dry
And I'm only twenty-one

And I swear I'll never ever touch another beer again
But then the evening rolls around And I drink and piss so much that I think I'm gonna drown
And when I finally find the bed the room is spinning round and round
