Can't talk about the money no more - it ain't comin in label's don't give it up, I think they're Republican they blame it on the downloadin but on the down low I think they're goin down with their mouths open
"yes homo", the best promo goes to the brown nosers well I refuse to take part in that hip hop's dead, my ma's about to have a Cardiac my little sister's runnin 'round screamin "where the party at?"
and she don't even know where the Party at-- down on K street putting money through the laundromat nah I can't say that--no politics even with Obama in, still got a lotta ish that we ain't doin nothing bout--I ain't on the frontline I bought a Vote Or Die shirt one time, I wrote a couple George Bush punchlines.
But I apologize--I'm such a hypocrite we ain't picketin'
they do it for us we're getting fat eatin Threat Level Oranges but my point is I'm tryin to stop frontin on my Seinfeld shh, so we talk about nothing
I'M GOIN CRAZY
TRYIN TO FIGURE OUT WHAT TO SAY WHEN NOTHING'S OK
I THINK WE'VE ALL GONE CRAZY
SAVE ME
BEFORE WE ALL START TO SOUND THE SAME BEFORE WE ALL START TO PLAY THE GAME WHERE EVERYBODY KNOWS: YOU CAN'T SAY THAT,
CAN'T TALK ABOUT THAT,
SO WE TALK ABOUT NOTHING Can't talk about cars with these gas prices no songs about cars: that's a rap crisis if you say you can't afford it, lose your rap license and picture me writing a song about a black hybrid I am so sick of people sayin that they're goin green sounds like a bunch of people saying "notice me!" OK I notice you, you got my respect-- drive around in a Prius and fly a private jet? well I guess it's all a ruse, huh? ya'll got me wantin to increase my pollution here the truth comes:

know what they say about a big carbon footprint-- huge junk.
yeah I know it sounds screwed up but you can say anything if it's SCREWED UP I do me I ain't doin what the group does I see the bridge, you jump
ma your baby just grew up I don't even eat no more, I do lunch one thing I ain't doin that's frontin on my Seinfeld shhhh, so we talk about nothing I'M GOIN CRAZY...
I can't talk about my problems no more we all got'em now
Main Street's suffering, Wall Street's bottomed out they blame it on the Dow Jones we don't care who to blame we're getting kicked out of our households basically, we're drowning with our mouths open and they're telling us to keep our mouths shut my account's frozen, but we ain't mad at our luck as long as no one on the corner got SWAGGER LIKE US but, gotta watch what we say they could be listening [like who?] the CIA is on a mission and [who else?] kids these days, they're so inquisitive [so what?] so for a while we were whisperin like wait til you see my shhhhh but all of that sounds like shhhh we had enough of that they wanna dissect the lines like a running back-- well is it any wonder that I'm goin crazy?
