type of individual hysterical, types of individual.

far from the nonsense while peeps walk the streets in their sleep, i stay conscious ready to speak over beats for the needs i represent a thousand souls who never made it this far watching from the other side of the stars spend a mission in mars pushing my music not just amusement i made this so u can use it for ur own improvement not as a mc but as a human living on the same earth and breathing in the same pollution everything was meant to be hip hip was sent to me keep the fame the money i hold it sentimentally own material things will be turned to dust eventually ill be the mc those lyrics will last infinitely so to the death of me keep trying to snatch the breath of me negativity only brought out the best of me it was my destiny to be one of the illest i represent that to the fullest.
