It's not like I haven't tried and tried
It isn't where I look but what I find
I've been keeping clear
Of stepping on the cracks
I missed just enough to keep me coming back

Oh I'm waiting for better angels
Oh I'm waiting for any lead
And though my case looks fatal
I'm still hoping better angels come to me

Better late, than not at all
Better to make the break, than take the fall
I wouldn't mind hanging on
If I could find out what I'm hanging from

Oh I'm waiting for better angels
Yeah I'm waiting for any lead
And though my case looks fatal
I'm still hoping better angels come to me

Oh I'm waiting for better angels
Yeah I'm waiting for any lead
And though my case looks fatal
I'm still hoping better angels come to me
Still hoping better angels come to me
Still hoping better angels come to me
Still hoping better angels come to me
