Nasty reflections are gaining control Show me a concept to heal our soul ... and hope must defeat rebell yell I found the key how to break the spell

I want a mission of love I want a mission of love Saving the dreams of the new generation I want a mission of love I want a mission of love

I've got a vision of love in my mind Left a world of confusion behind I hope the appeal to my heart Save fantasy from falling apart So in love

I want a mission of love!
