I feel it when diamonds crack
And I know where curses land
Invisible after you
Invisible after you

And I'll face it now
I want to believe there's nothing after this
I'll....nevermind

I've given, got needles back
And I've loved for holes in my back
Invisible after you
Invisible after you

And I'll face it now
I want to believe there's nothing after this
And I'll....nevermind
Not this time

I'm the mask you've painted on
And I'll crumble until we're gone
After all we die alone
Nothing is saved for grading souls

And I'll face it now
I want to believe there's nothing after this
I'll....nevermind
One more lie
