Oceans upon when I can feel you everywhere. When you're lonely look inside your heart and see me hiding in there. You could never lose me baby you're the only one for me : no one else can love you better don't you know I always be.

Close to you when you need me I'll be close to you. I'm on my way to you wherever you are no matter how far. I'll always be close to you.

Baby be strong what love can do .Let the moment take you on the way home.
And I'll be there waiting for you. No one else can love you better. You're the only one I see. I'll be there with you forever
I only wanna be

Close to you say the word and I'll be close to you. when you need me just call out my name. And I'll go on my way. I'll always be close to you.

Sometimes you can play tricks on your heart. Somethings you try to believe. Whatever you do don't give up for this now.
