I can make you blush

I can make you sweat

Make you come over all possessive

Like I'm your angel to protect

Make your heart beat at 134 beats a minute

Think your life's empty without me in it

But what you don't know won't hurt you

So I keep it to myself that I'm crazy about you

"Treat them mean to keep them keen"

An expression a hard lesson that I had to learn

'Cos when I give my heart too easily

That's when I get burned

I know what buttons to push to turn a man on

Doesn't mean I'm gonna push 'em with you that would be wrong

Gonna strip away my make up what u get is what you see

No trix, no games just me

I can make you beg

Make you lose your breath

I can get you feelin' all embarrassed

Like you're standin' there undressed

When I turn it on I can be magnetic

Then make you think that you're not gonna get it

Pull your strings make you do anythin'

With you never knowing that I'm crazy about you

Behind the smoke & mirrors there's a girl you never see

No trix, no games, no illusions, no fantasy

An' I want you to know her 'cos she's the real me

No trix, no games that's the way it's got to be
