"Below These Scars"

we were sentenced for this and for the time that took you took you away

losing battles against the mind as you are searching yourself and hope for the better forget all that is left behind

but no,
we are going away
a slightest fix could stop the pain nobody wants to feel this way

know who we are a morning star
shines a light underneath
but we don't have to be here
don't have to stay here i want to know
how far away from here

when something begins there is something to end there is something to believe in

but no,

well, i know who we are
don't have to be here
can you ever forgive me

just a like piece that needs some turning rolling into a perfect shape just like the leaves that keeps on falling finding shelter from the rain
