Today, is the last day can't take any more
Driven me away, taken this too far
It's always the last time I've heard it before
Everything I am, always wanting more

Peel away the lies all you've given me is emptiness
Inside
Shallow be thy name all you've given me is hurt so deep
My darkest days

Life's wasting away with you by my side
This tide has taken it's toll and I'm drowning so fast
There's nothing to hold on to but you

Thorn in my side in my life
Is it murder if it's pleasure that I gain from the Killing
If I ended it
Today is the reckoning this is everything you deserve
Where love runs dry I'll be right there this is goodbye

Life's wasting away with you by my side
This tide has taken it's toll and I'm drowning so fast
There's nothing to hold on to but you

Now that you're gone it seems so unreal
Everything's lost but I know I can feel again
Start it all over, forget everything

You are the reason I'm broken I'm lost
You are the reason I'm broken I'm lost

Life's wasting away with you by my side
This tide has taken it's toll and I'm drowning so fast
There's nothing to hold on to but you
