"Cast In The Shadows"

As the tears roll down your face
There's no need to cry in shame
Memories of better days is what you hold
Dark secrets no-one has been told.

Wish upon the brightest star
Things will get better from now on Close your eyes and visualise
They have no power over you.

It seems you life's forever falling
This is such a tranquil moment you can't trust anyone from now on
It seems your security is all but gone.

Are you cast in the shadows
Or will you rise and fight another day!
