Yes time goes by
I can't learn to shut my eyes
It's kind of hard when you're walking alone tonight
Dead corpse sends shivers down my spine
Don't make much sense to me
A thousand miles running in my head
It's not the love that you sacrificed
It's the time spent here by your side
Just such a waste of life
For you I'd sacrifice

Now I'm watching, I'm waiting
For the times, Cause I'm still bleeding
Still searching, still needing
Give me time and I'll be fine
I can't help but wonder why
These tears are falling from the sky
I know, I'll see your face again
All I see is shades of grey
Cause friends like you I can't replace
I know, I'll be coming home

Searching for time
But you're still in my dreams at night
It's kind of hard when you're walking alone tonight
Dear corpse sends shivers down my spine
Your families your life
And true love will never die
It's not the love that you sacrificed
It's the time spent here by your side
True love will never die
True love will never die

Now I'm watching, I'm waiting
For the times, Cause I'm still bleeding
Still searching, still needing
Give me time and I'll be fine
I can't help but wonder why
These tears are falling from the sky
I know, I'll see your face again
All I see is shades of grey

Cause friends like you I can't replace
I know, I'll be coming home
I can't help but wonder why
These tears are falling from the sky
I know, I'll see your face again

For the times, Cause I'm still bleeding
Still searching, still needing
Give me time and I'll be fine
I can't help but wonder why
These tears are falling from the sky
I know, I'll see your face again
All I see is shades of grey
Cause friends like you I can't replace
I know, I'll be coming home

I'm watching, I'm waiting
Still searching, still needing

For the times, Cause I'm still bleeding
Still searching, still needing
Give me time and I'll be fine
I can't help but wonder why
These tears are falling from the sky
I know, I'll see your face again
All I see is shades of grey
Cause friends like you I can't replace
I know, I'll be coming home
