Oh sweet promise to the day I met you
An unguarded heart and I've hurt you
So I'm driving out to impartial sea
To let the waves overtake me

They spill like rain
The promises we made with raw and sorry eyes
We'll kick and scream and fight this
As darkness turns to brightness

Oh sweet promise to the day I met you
An unguarded heart and I've hurt you
So I'm driving out to impartial sea
To let the waves overtake me

It's hard now to turn it back somehow for just some peace of mind
We'll kick and scream and fight this
As darkness turns to brightness

Oh sweet promise to the day I met you
An unguarded heart and I've hurt you
So I'm driving out to impartial sea
To let the waves overtake me

Oh sweet promise to the day I met you
An unguarded heart and I've hurt you

Oh sweet promise to the day I met you
An unguarded heart and I've hurt you
So I'm driving out to impartial sea
To let the waves overtake me

Oh sweet promise to the day I met you
An unguarded heart and I've hurt you
So I'm driving out to impartial sea
To let the waves overtake me

Your right, all right!
