With a broken heart it's easy to start fires
We'll set flames to promises and sacrifice our desires
But now I feel it's wrong that I have felt such love
Mistake after mistake
Unlove this

Recounting the times we shared / I was lost and unprepared
A weight on my shoulders
I'm sorry for my wrong

(I want you
I need you
I let you go
10 months since you've been gone
I love you
I hate you)

I understand the reason why we can't be friends
And after many years our hearts may make amends
But now I feel it's wrong that I have felt such love
Mistake after mistake
Unlove this
Unlove this heart
