[Translated]

Yea, I didn't expect for us to go long
I told you how I felt beforehand
That we should just separate

*If we see each other again we'll love again
With an awkward laughter
I don't know why it's so hard to live one day without you
I need you

I don't know if you believe it
When I said to separate oh baby
I was sorry that you were crying
I was worried that you were in a lot of pain

Repeat *

The first love since I've opened my eyes was you
I hope that it's not the end of us
I thought about it
And I'm not ready for other lovers
I hope you're my other love
