Drawn in like flies to the lights
Cast back into the shadow
Trying to find a real reason
An explanation to why I never care
Pretending sucks but I have to
Hopefully I'll commit someday
Existing in a place I don't belong
I'd like to shove it all away

A real reason's all I want right now
A real reason's all I want right now
A real reason's all I want right now
Someone's gotta give it to me

Drawn out like the blood from my own veins
Sheltered by an unwanted roof
Beauty in the eye of the beholder
Since when did this become a contest
What did I miss in the time I was gone
Why's everything still the same
Thought I was moving somewhere new
Guess it's just the same everywhere

A real reason's all I want right now
A real reason's all I want right now
A real reason's all I want right now
Someone's gotta give it to me

True to form it's not given
True to form it's not given
True to form it's not given

A real reason's all I want right now
A real reason's all I want right now
A real reason's all I want right now
Someone's gotta give it to me
Give it to me
Give it to me
Me
