"Every Other Second"

Visit "Every Other Second" on MotoLyrics.com

Every other second another life it ends
Tired and alone and far from any friends
And every other second a new life begins
The circle in the cycle, life will never end

Ooh if I survive
The fact's still there
You can't hide from
The truth

Every time I look back, yeah it is still there
Death follows every man and you know that you're scared
Every other second, another leaves this world
And every other second, another one comes

Ooh if I survive
The fact's still there
You can't hide from
The truth

You can't run from the fact and fiction
You can't hide from that
You can't be afraid to listen
Got to open wide

Ooh if I survive
The fact's still there
You can't hide from
The truth
The truth
The truth
