I catch a moment with you,
It's amazing - and so incredibly rare to do.
We're walking in the woods, the sun is blazing down - and I'm holding hands with you.
Anything that could spoil our day -
is a million miles away.
No work and no-one to say -
you shouldn't be this way.

We're running, we're laughing - things that we used to do.
You kiss me, I'm happy - being alone with you.
There's nothing and no-one making me feel this way.
The way that you do on this beautiful day.

Life gets so hard sometimes it makes me crazy.
I feel like running but here I stand with you.
And for a moment I feel like a teenager.
These precious moments alone are so few.
Anything that could spoil our day - is a million miles
away.
No work and no-one to say - you shouldn't be this way.

We're running, we're laughing - things that we used to do.
You kiss me, I'm happy - being alone with you.
There's nothing and no-one making me feel this way.
The way that you do on this beautiful day.

I wish this could last forever.
I wish we didn't have to go back home.
So good us just being together. it's not enough I know.

Anything that could spoil our day - is a million miles
away.
No work and no-one to say - you shouldn't be this way.
We're running, we're laughing - things that we used to
do.
You kiss me, I'm happy - being alone with you.
There's nothing and no-one making me feel this way.
The way that you do on this beautiful day.
