One, Two, One Two Three Four

[Verse 1]

Hello, good morning, how you've been this week?
'Cause it's been weeks since I've seen you
Since all my colors have turned blue
Tell me whatever? you see, all of me
'Cause I'll be the one to take you home
And give you my coat when you are cold

[Pre-Chorus]

I sing whoa
They should lock you away
'Cause you know
You've stole my heart and let me go
And if you're near
You've had me begging you please
Don't you leave
'Cause I'm not letting go

[Chorus]

So give me your heart, heart, heart
And I'll not ever let it go
'Til I see how fa-a-ar
Forever takes me down this road

[Verse 2]

Hello, my darling, will you come with me?
'Cause I've been sending you ___?___
Wasting all my time on you
So what do I gotta do?
To get my colors straight from blue
'Cause I won't gonna start it
Won't be nothin' compared to you

[Pre-Chorus]

[Chorus]

[Chorus 2]

Give me your heart, heart, heart

And I'll color it with my own
When I give my heart, heart, heart
So give me your heart

So give me your heart
So give me your heart
So give me your heart

[Pre-Chorus]

But I'll sing whoa
They should lock you away
'Cause you know
You've stole my heart and let me go
And if you leave
You'd have me begging you please
Don't you leave
'Cause I'm not, I can't let you go

[Chorus]

[Chorus 2]

I've been waiting
Waiting for you
So give me your heart
I've been standing and waiting
So won't you give me your heart
I've been waiting
Waiting for you
So won't you give me your heart
