

Seals And Crofts "Story of Her Love"

Visit "Story of Her Love" on MotoLyrics.com

She loves because she loves
And she dreams the same way that she loves
And she suffers because she does
And I love everything she does

Silent as the wind that blows, I watch her as her life unfolds
Wanting to be part of the never ending story of her love

She came into my life today, she came and gave me words to say Knowing pages I have written on the never ending story of her love

She cares because she cares
And she worships the same way that she cares
And she suffers because she cares
And I am the trouble that she wears

Timely as the grass that grows, I follow her each place she goes Thankful to be part of the never ending story of her love
