Today went so softly
Just faded away
Like the rain in the springtime
On that day, I met you, I met you, when I met you

Today went so quietly
I turned and it was gone
Like you, like me, it was lonely
It went on, it went on, it went on, it went on

Then a beautiful thing happened
And we were one
And all the world was
A beautiful face to be lost in

Today went so quickly, just a moment in time
Like the hours in springtime
When you were mine, you were mine
You were mine, you were mine

Then a beautiful thing happened
And we were one
And all the world was
Today, today
