There's no time, there's no time to lose yourself
You know you can't give up, no way
Try to find, try to find something to build Instead of breaking everything and now you're on your own

Keep on cryin' 'cause today you lost your love
Keep on cryin' cryin' for yourself
Keep on cryin' 'cause today you lost a lot/the one
Keep on cryin' there is nothing more to do

Be wise, be wiser than you were
You think you'll never find a way
You're never through, you're never through Until you're through you know it's time to lose yourself

and now you're own on your own

Now, when you meet someone
You thank god, I'm gone this time
As old friend you know
Is on the phone, he's all alone

Build your dream and stick to it
Cause now you're only full of shit
