See you at the table
We can make the breakfast toast
To keepin' you right up close, oh you
I see you in my backyard
Make your way up off fence
The windows up and up and cracked to let yourself in

If I lost the diamond
You'll be the dynamite
Exposing these jewels at night
On the dark place
And on your expedition
You found the good in me
Dug into the rocks and blew all the dust off

And if I catch you waiting long
I've a tendency forgetting love
Into the night, into the wild, just don't forget
You can hit me up, oh
If you're feelin' alone
When you're needin' someone
You'll be comin' over

Shining like the a razor
At the bottom of a wishing well
Maybe it's the best I fell down here
Well you always come and guessing
Drowning in the secret song
Listenin' so close, I couldn't tell you moved on

And if I catch you waiting long
I've a tendency forgetting love
Into the night, into the wild, just don't forget
You can hit me up, oh
If you're feelin' alone
When you're needin' someone
Come on come right over
Oh if you're feeling alone
When you're needing someone
Come on come right over
