Somebody said: "It's not so bad."

All I can hear is a cry of pain

Somebody said: "It will be OK."

But I don't believe it anymore

Must get down and save me

Cannot wait until a new day comes

Dark won't last forever

Soon the moon will shine on me

Alone in a park, alone near the sea

Want to get out, yet I'm not free

Watching the stars feeling Infinite

I wish I could never die.

Must get down and save me

Cannot wait until a new day comes

Dark won't last forever

Soon the moon will shine on me
