It's not so hard to hear the whispers
If you don't use your hand to block the sound
And I can see all your colors
Even when the lights go out

But I don't know you anymore
And I don't want to

If you've got something to say
Won't you say it to my face
Instead of cowering away like a dog
With your tail between your legs
Making your exit
It's the same life you've always been living
It's the same lie you've always been living

You got all of our friends approval
Now the whole towns behind you too
Everyone's eyes are on you
You got them in the palm of your hand don't you?

But I don't know you anymore
And I don't want to

If you've got something to say
Say it to my face
Instead of cowering away like a dog
With your tail between your legs
Making your exit
It's the same life you've always been living
It's the same lie you've always been living

It's the same lie you've always been living
It's the same lie you've always been living
