Manicured hands owners of manicured lawns and designer labels
Suit and tie 6 pm meet the fam' at the dinner table
A white picket fence and H.O.A. to make sure things are equal

Aren't we all happy in suburbia?

A big wide fleet of SUVs are coming down the street Drop the kids off at school head to the gym while her mans at work
As long as she looks pretty as long as he's making money everyone is smiling

Aren't we all happy in suburbia?

Everything looks perfect on the outside Bigger is better and always best
And nothing could ever go wrong here

Can't you see they're happy in The wives are happy in The kids and husbands are happy in Even the dogs are happy in Suburbia
