Oooo, damn girl your on fire.

[Chorus: Sean Garrett]

(I know you on fire) And your man don't love you right.

Damn, my side is cold.

Just come on in.

(I know you about it) You gon' get your chance to show tonight.

Stress no more.

Just come on in.

[Verse: Plies (Sean Garrett)]

Your man sex getting old till you give me a call.

He just gon' make love to you, I'm a eat you and all.

It ain't no secret, ain't nothing to hide cause I'm a dog.

Call me when your pussy get lonely so I can break you off.

You wanna impress me baby, show you can take it off.

Pick you up in the air and pin you to the wall.

(But I got a remix for all the girls that's sick and tired.

She told me she

don't never wanna come back home cause her nigga ain't that fine.)

[Verse: Sean Garrett]

All the beautiful girls in the world.

(From the A-town to the south of France)

Feeling they ain't getting enough of love.

(And you're sick of what you're dealing with)

Here's a song to show you all I feel.

If I had you here you know what I'd give you. Ooo, the next time he hurt you bad baby.

Let me make it all ok.

[Hook: Sean Garrett]

First I'm a come and get you girl.

(Out the hood with no fear)

Don't wanna have to pull my gun.

(But if I have to I will)

For two days straight I'm a keep you up.
(Make you feel like you ain't felt)
In my bed hitting it like he didn't hit it bad.

[Verse: Akon (Sean Garrett)]
See I know your getting out of control. (Out of control)
Cause the one you're dealing with is really getting old.
(So getting old)
Know I got that brand new.
Do more than your man do.

Go on and grab some chocolate before the market
close. (Do, do, do, do, do, do, do)
Show 'em you lady. (Hey)
Show 'em you my baby. (Hey)
Now raise your hands up.
Oh, I forgot that ring too heavy. (Hey)
Man I had to get it. (Hey)
Had to rock you steady. (Hey)
Had to keep my baby close to my hip like a machete.
(Hey)
(I wouldn't be here) I wouldn't be here for you if I didn't care. (Didn't care)
Wanna do what I do with you shawty and pull your hair.
(Pull your hair)
Is that too rough? (When the going gets tough)
Put you in handcuffs. (Can you go right there) Gotta change.
You'll never be nowhere but in my care.
