Destiny, once more
Cruelly tears my life apart
Don't bring that pain
To my aching heart

As fate descends
Impassive discontent
Rains down on me

If this is coma
Let me see the other side

Mis is shrouding my aura
As I sense reality fading
Trance is my only escape

Is it fate?
My rapture fades
Yeah? Then I must find a meaning

Why I exist

Tell me, tell me more, reveal to me
Do we live again?
Show me, show me truth, is there hope?
Hope to ever break free

On the other side
I'll know what to do
I won't be missed
Let me go and I'll co-exist

Please reveal the truth to me
Without that harmony
Will my rapture really fade?
Is it fate?
