Surrendering my laments
I remember the deep inner strength in you
I'm in sensual ecstasy

So deep are the feelings born
That they last forever

As we made love in mist shrouded nights
I vow I was in heaven with you
I'm in sensual ecstasy

So deep are these absolute feelings for you
I'm deep into you, and we'll last forever

Inside, my heart beats at one with yours

In bliss recalled and so soon returned
Are love's proud memories of you
I'm in sensual ecstasy

So deep are these deep rooted feelings of love
Love for you
That they last forever

So far now, my conscience has flown
With you love I'm never alone
Far away from you, but I remember you
Far away from you, but I still feel you
