Keep trying to pinch myself
Wake up from this bad dream.
You being with someone else,
Cause you're always with me

I only pushed you away,
Hoping that you'll come back someday, soon
But you couldn't care less,
As my tears are falling down, on your chest.

So you're holding her,
But it doesn't feel the same
When your life starts to hurt
But you're the one to blame

When you're chasing love
But you also run away
Just remember you let go,
Not me.

Say this was love not hate,
I don't hate you at all,
Just tell me your world has changed, hey
From 'We Both had it all'.

I only pushed you away
Hoping that you'll come back someday, soon.
But I'll tell you, I won't wait,
So don't keep thinking that I'm here,
For you.

So you're holding her,
But it doesn't feel the same
And your life starts to hurt
But you're the one to blame

When you're chasing love
But you also run away
Just remember you let go.
Not me.
Now what's the point in trying,

Wasting time and lying
I'd set me free.

Now what's the point in trying,
Wasting time and lying,

Don't come running back, running back to me. x15

So you're holding her,
But it doesn't feel the same
When your life starts to hurt
You're the one to blame

When you're chasing love
But you also run away
Just remember you let go,
Not me.

Not me.x3

Just remember you let go. x2
Not me.
