You're so smart
You're never wrong
And I know that you know
How I feel
And what is wrong
Why I feel so alone

Just remember well how we started
And how its gonna end
Maybe after a while
You will change
And say something else
Something else
And she said

Don't be sorry
You know I love you
Just take my hand
Don't be sorry
There is something about you
Don't say sorry again

I'm so blind
And I don't know
If what you say is more
More than words
Before I go
Give me something to hold

Just remember well how we started
And how its gonna end
Maybe after a while
You will change
And say something else
Something else
And she said

Don't be sorry
You know I love you
Just take my hand
Don't be sorry

There is something about you
Don't say sorry again

You gave me all
All the answers
And the reason forâ€¦
But I hope
We'll be together
At the end of the world
