Nothing there is nothing more to say
But right after you're gone things
Are running down my brain
All those things I wanted you to know
But I didn't dare to say to you

So here's my letter to you
With all I've ever want you to know
I won't let your eyes get tired cause
I love you so

Nothing there is nothing more to say
Cause our eyes look at the same way
And your smile won't let me see your worse
Cause you're already sad

So here's my letter to you
That destroyed you and made me so sad
Cause from now on I won't see your eyes and I
Will see your worse
Cause your smile
Your smile is gone

Nothing there is nothing more to say
But right after you're gone things
Are running down my brain
All those things I wanted you to know
But I didn't dare to say to you
