'Born Dead' by Nino Bless

Introduction: "Think of it like this all right: you're already dead, you were dead the moment you were born"

[Verse 1: Nino Bless]

Yeaahhh...Hell is calling, my cell's already vacant, I'm aching, steady pacing, tryna loosen that vice from Damien's replacement. But I already met Satan, she's a 5'3 snake bitch lame, with some fake tits. That's my ex, slept on my fam, the lowest of cunts, I should of left her to dance, alone! But when the Devil wanna tango, it's using every angle, the effect's like an Atheist trapped in a room with demons and angels reason will leave when you seeing this fable. Do you believe this? Nah... Don't need to beef it with a thesis the difference of appeal and what's real in the streets to that moment that'll trigger any killer til he resets (Peep this), meet Bless, (No!) I'm on Manson mode, psychopathically driven and I gotta be, outta my mind, thank God I'm not alive when they'd probably recommend a lobotomy, follow I..BOMB, I am a lion in a wart-hog's colony, an anomaly like honest right-wing pro-Obama Islamics trying to fix this economy. I'm a reminder of Rakim's odyssey, how the fuck is Mommy still not proud of me, why? Thou shall be honoring I got a classic for every one of Solomon's wives. You know, we ride, all day, all night, I don't smoke, but stay high, do anything to make pain the hide, Born Dead!

[Hook: Katie Trubetzky]

Your lives are done right when you're born,
Right when you're born your lives are done,
Your lives are done right when you're born,
Right when you're born your lives are done.
But when the Devil wanna tango, it's using every angle, (Dead!) (Dead!) Your lives are done right when you're
born,

Right when you're born your lives...

[Verse 2: Cambatta]

Front door to that staircase, to that bedroom to that white ho. Tight black glove on my hand, but I don't give a fuck I'm here to slice dopes. Ahhway dooey dembelar, I'm finna take your soul, I'm like Chucky bitch, pop the trunk, I'm finna dump the trick, late nights not for guppy fish! Poltergeist, ghost of Christ, death match, roll the dice, stillborn that was still born cuz my grip on life Vulcan tight. Dolomite, spiked dick, AIDS juice, stroke your wife, no condom on, pregnancy, and you think it's yours for your whole life, I'm like Candy-man in this bitch, say my name enough buzz coming, I could make a grown man cry with my words alone like my tongues on you. So cool, if I lose a tooth, the tooth fairy leave me like one-hundred. That's off topic but I swear I'm evil, you see my shadow, RUN FROM IT! Reptilian blood line, sex, women, and drug crimes, ten girls, one cup, two donkeys, FUN TIMESâ€¦Luciferian, Jews and Arians, true American back, NIGGER! Born dead, two cesareans, jumped out like "I'm back NIGGER!"

[Hook: Katie Trubetzky]

Your lives are done right when you're born,
Right when you're born your lives are done,
Your lives are done right when you're born,
Right when you're born your lives are done.
But when the Devil wanna tango, it's using every angle, (Dead!) (Dead!) Your lives are done right when you're
born,
Right when you're born your lives...
