you're right beside me arms around my neck eyes like you'll never leave a love lover

a sweet thing i know we agreed but i think i'll call you anyway yeah hello

it's just me a little distance and i lost something in between

i've waited forever
for this to get better

and you said
why should i believe in something i can't see or feel with my fingers? why should i believe?
and i said

anytime you think you wanna be my love that's a reason, do what you're thinking of any time you think you wanna come on over stop asking, get in the car and drive
stop asking, get in the car and drive

we hold on take it slowly breathing deep and meaning every word for just you only

you said
how can i believe in something when you're never here? i'm not even sure i need this how can i believe?

i've waited forever

why should i believe in something
