[Verse:]

Let me paint you a picture of a story
How life that was once beautiful turned out so dreadful
With skies painted black
And fields drenched in red
This society that seemed to flourish
Is eating itself from the inside out and it's killing me

[Chorus:]

Don't you feel it in your own heart
That we have a chance to make a change
To turn this nose-diving future
Before it's blown away with a mushroom cloud

Can't you see that it's all going to end
If we don't change what's inside our hearts
Finding a way just to get along
Will be our only means of salvation

[Verse:]

As this picture is finished a world that was so wonderful
Turned out so deceitful
And now we are just paying for all the damages
That we have done to ourselves
But as we look at the 10-foot hole that we dug
We don't have to jump in

[Chorus:]

Don't you feel it in your own heart
That we have a chance to make a change
To turn this nose-diving future
Before it's blown away with a mushroom cloud

Can't you see that it's all going to end
If we don't change what's inside our hearts
Finding a way just to get along
Will be our only means of salvation

[Bridge:]

These days no one seems to understand that the masks we all wear

Need to be taken off so we can keep the secrets off of our faces and out of our lives

[Guitar Solo]

[Chorus]
