When I see you below me
Bright eyes
It's a long night that coming on
When I feel you above me
It's a makeup from the shakeup we had around

When you're sleeping beside me
I catch you dreaming about leaving the avenue
So when you're wrapped all around me
I catch the feeling like this is meaning
You're all but gone

Always the last one to know
Will get the story
That the turnstile door
Will never mind a stalling
In the steady go and come
Where you'll get your heart back
All wrapped in Aluminum

So much for steady
I can't take it all the faking
And the blaming of who's more wrong
I used to be pacing and you'd be shaking
Ripping the bedpost from my wall
And I'm just saying
With all this breaking, we just keep rolling along

Always the last one to know
Will get the story
That the turnstile door
Will never mind a stalling
In the steady go and come
Where you'll get your heart back
All wrapped in Aluminum

So when I feel only bed sheets
I'll know the highway
Has caught you sideways
Well if the road tends to get a little shifty
You could turn my way
And girl you know you might make

All your wrongs good
And maybe baby then you'll get your heart back
All wrapped in Aluminum
