Verse

Feeling, feeling like I should've said
Something to stop you, something to stop you
But I kept on covering
Stepped on, now smothering
I never miss a chance to miss a chance
Getting dealt the cards of new romance
Underplayed them all...frozen hands
Crazy, crazy to think that if I kept on calling
That you'd just fall in My oddest dreams and make them even

Chorus

She's all up in arms
Been along these tracks before
I know what she's asking for
Do I think that I could ever give up enough?
Do I think that I could ever give up enough?
And I'll hide my hands from you
Been here a time or two
And I'd never lie to you but
I don't think that I could ever give up enough
I don't think that I could ever give up enough

Verse

Holding on them nights that we Turned on faucets
And let the fog in
But if I ever see her again
She'll be like water
Poured all over
My oddest streams and make them even

Chorus

Well she's all up in arms
Been along these tracks before
I know what she's asking for
Do I think that I could ever give up enough?
Do I think that I could ever give up enough?
And I'll hide my hands from you
Been here a time or two

And I'd never lie to you but
I don't think that I could ever give up enough
I don't think that I could ever give up enough (no no)
Break
Well she's all up in arms
Been along these tracks before
I know what she's asking for
Do I think that I could ever give up enough?
Do I think that I could ever give up enough?
And I'll hide my hands from you
Been here a time or two
And I'd never lie to you but
I don't think that I could ever give up enough
I don't think that I could ever give up enough
And I don't think that I could ever give up enough
And I don't think that I could ever give up enough
And I don't think that I could ever give up enough (no no)
