Verse

Did she chew you up?
Spit you out and thrown down
Did you wander away?
And did she track you down?
And plant a seed so deep
You got roots for veins
And did she close the door?
And did you wonder how?
Decisions, decisions will kill you man
Johnny-on-the spot now pick your plan
Well, well, well

Chorus

She don't claim to love no one at all
But let some fool come strolling in the door
Watch that butterfly in reverse
And hope them lonely eyes will cure your worst
Your worst

Verse

So did your lighthouse world
Go dim for a bit?
You ending up on the floor
Cause didn't you think that she
Was just a phase gone crazy?
And these damn days are taking too long
So did you hold your own
When the onslaught came on?
But did you sound the alarm?
And watch us fools rush in
I kept the pace and that place was ablaze
And you'd be amazed
That we're not at all on our own
No we're not at all on our own

Verse

Thousands of volumes of books thrown to the ground
Wouldn't quit searching till the version you found
Had that butterfly in reverse
Hope them lonely eyes will cure your worst
But how'd you'd ever get by

And how'd you ever get by

Bridge

If you feel the need

You can lose your feet

Locomotive Hearts just move along

So when you're broken down

And don't see no help coming round

Locomotive Hearts just move along

And you'll find....that we're not at all on our own
