What a tale I have to tell
Makes me shiver when I think about
A story for my conscience
An adventure that I can't keep quiet
It's the story of a golden boy
So golden he can touch your heart
A tale of a love affair
A love affair that never stops

I love the way you laugh
And the way you tantalise
I love it when you tremble
And they way you
Set me on fire
Set me on fire
Set me on fire

Took a journey to the faraway
And even now I think about it
Think about the golden boy
The boy that made my heart run riot
If I was given half a chance
I'd go back to the golden boy
And carry on the love affair
And carry on this golden boy

I love the way you laugh
And the way you tantalise
I love it when you tremble
And they way you
Set me on fire
Set me on fire
Set me on fire

I love the way you laugh
And the way you tantalise
I love it when you tremble
And they way you
Set me on fire
Set me on fire
Set me on fire
