You never really loved me, baby, you never, never really cared
You never really loved me, baby, you never, never
really cared
You just used my love

Because you came into my life, said you wanted to be my wife
Yes, you came into my life, said you wanted to be my wife
You and your puppy love

With all your love you have brought me
I was a fool, because you have caught me, baby

You never really loved me, baby, you never, never
really cared
You never really loved me, baby, you never, never
really cared

I said you never really loved me, baby, you never, never really cared
No, you never really loved me, baby, you never, never
really cared
You just used my love

my wife
You and your puppy love

I was a fool, because you have caught me, baby

But you never really loved me, baby, you never, never really cared
No, you never really loved me, baby, you never, never really cared
