Young and Warm and Wonderful

Young and warm and wonderful

You are all I dreamed you'd be

Dreams that seemed improbable

All at once have come true, now I see

Every searching heart finds its happiness

Love is only a matter of time

Young and warm and wonderful at last

You're here, my love, and love is mine

Every searching heart finds its happiness

Love is only a matter of time

Young and warm and wonderful at last

You're here, my love, and love is mine
