"Light & Dark"

I know that sometime life is hard, but I'll be there for you
To catch you when you fall, and bring you to your feet
You can count on me
At times when lights just seem so dim, know you are not alone
As dark as it may get, I won't let it get so far
That you can't see anything at all

There's still hope in this world
Good people still exist
And when your lights seem to unfurl
Don't forget that you matter to more people than you think
And me

If I let you down before, that wasn't my intent
And if it played its part, it won't happen again
I can promise that Just know my ears are here for you, don't be afraid to talk
I will listen to you, and hear what you say
Every single day

There's still hope in this world
Good people still exist
And when your lights seem to unfurl
think
And me
