I'm sorry for the temper
I let get away from me,
I said a lot of things I didn't really mean
You always wore your heart on the outside,
'Cause this was just a mess we could never really hide
And now I'm paying for all the mistakes
That you've made

This is the rescue, the rescue
The reason I've been holding my breath every night,
This is where we collide
This is the rescue, the rescue
The reason I've been holding my breath every night,
This is where we collide

And there you go again with all the troubles that you get in
It's pins and needles
We'll start a fire so big the Heavens can see it
You give going up in flames
Such a good name
And not I'm paying for all the mistakes
That you've made

This is the rescue, the rescue
The reason I've been holding my breath every night,
This is where we collide
This is the rescue, the rescue
The reason I've been holding my breath every night,
This is where we collide

You'll soon become a voice
On the other end of the phone where I go, go, go
Wearing my heart on my sleeve
Has become just too messy for me

This is the rescue, the rescue
The reason I've been holding my breath every night,
This is where we collide
This is the rescue, the rescue
The reason I've been holding my breath every night,
This is where we collide

This is the rescue, the rescue
The reason I've been holding my breath every night,
This is where we collide
This is the rescue, the rescue
This is the rescue, the rescue
This is where we collide
