Every day friends and lovers grow
Like flowers make mistakes
And spend the hours living it down
Life's a game
A journey for us inside out
No doubt, no doubt

But down the road
You're bound to take a different route
Where it goes?
Nobody really knows
I've found in the end
It always comes back around
Somehow, somehow

But I don't know
Why it has to be
So black and white for you and me
When there's a million colors in between
And we could be anything
The truth ain't always what it seems
And right or wrong lacks depth to me
Fear is our only enemy
And we could be anything

I can feel
The heaviness you keep by your side
When it's real
It feels like it has multiplied
It's hard to deal
Without a friendly face in sight
But it's all right, it's all right

Because to grow
You've got to be alone sometimes
In the cold
Weathering the storm inside
So you know
No matter what it's gonna be fine
It'll be fine, so fine

But I don't know
Why it has to be
So black and white for you and me
When there's a million colors in between
And we could be anything
The truth ain't always what it seems
And right or wrong lacks depth to me
Fear is our only enemy
And we could be anything

Well if love is blind
How can you read the signs?
And I believe in time
Then we will see
That we could be anything

If the feeling's right
It's not so hard to find
And we can realize
What's meant to be
We can be anything
And if you love someone
You've got to let them go
Set them free
And trust that they will ebb and flow

But I don't know
Why it has to be
And we could be anything

But I don't know
Why it has to be

And we could be
We could be
We could be
We could be anything

We could be

We could be
We could be anything

We could be
We could be
We could be anything
