Slaughtered by the sword of arguments Unearthed by verses of disdain Destructive for the victims giving themselves to him
Lost in the souls sacrificed to him
Your shepherd has forgotten what to do next
He was destroyed by the patron of his adoration The harvest of revenge devours the dumb orphans
The daughters of omnipotent father are trembling
Merciless wars in the name of their prophet God - violence Mercy - death
Evil - degradation
Disability - good
Tears - disgrace
Chains - Life
Envy - coffin Promises - trick
The dumb redeemer's days of glory have already gone
Sons of the cross are pushed away Their chopped off
dead heads are still in silence
The blood is being shed and wars for a better world still go on God - violence
Mercy - death
Evil - degradation
Disability - good
Tears - disgrace
Chains - Life
Envy - coffin
Promises - trick
Burn all the coffins with the heroes of a sanctified expiation and mercy Lasting debates on the better sacrifice of painful expiation
don't lead to a healthy life...
Screams about a common sense won't change anything.
Each of us thinks about his stomach first."
"Friendship is the god of time"
And now get the fuck out you Jesus experiment!!!
