Under the gorgeous sky, feeling the breeze roll in Look how I'm stuck in your eyes,
Touching your perfect skin
Now all I can think of is you

My heart and my words don't mix
Well I'd rather show you anyhow
See, I want to take you home, if you're ready then take my arm
I shook my defenses and all of my senses to see how

All I can think of is you
And all my world turns for is you
All my heart beats to is you
Maybe I've gone too far, but I never fall... this hard.

Under your stars and spells, but higher than all the satellites
Now that I know you so well
We'll turn this cold night to paradise
When all I can think of is you

See, I want to take you home, if you're ready then take
my arm
I shook my defenses to welcome in, just say yes – say yes, because:

All I can think of is you
And all my world turns for is you
All my heart beats to is you
Maybe I've gone too far, but I never fall... this hard.
... and all I can think of is you.
